PKF North American Network is a membership association comprised of 87 independent accounting and consulting firms in North America that are dedicated to serving middle-market businesses and individual clients.

The members are leaders in their field, with proven track records providing service and solutions to investment, merger and acquisition, closely held business, not-for-profit, government and healthcare clients. These leaders are chosen based on their depth of knowledge and experience.

“As a member of these various committees, we have had the opportunity to gain valuable industry information, such as benchmarking data, best practices and resources, while also learning from key insights of other professionals who, like themselves, work very closely with industry based clients,” said Steve Lutz. “The resources, relationships, training and strategic alliances available through PKF North American Network help us to assist our clients as they face the challenges and changes inherent in the industry.”

Thanks to an affiliation with PKF International Ltd., members of the association also have access to professionals at about 175 additional firms around the world, which empowers them to provide seamless service to clients with business dealings and other interests abroad.

Through Wolf Financial Group companies, we offer a comprehensive array of financial and business consulting services. Our 120-plus professionals provide a full range of accounting, tax, and business consulting services to a wide range of closely held businesses and their management, with a particular emphasis on manufacturers, distributors, construction and real estate companies, governmental entities, healthcare institutions, not-for-profit organizations, community banks, hospitality companies, and employee benefit plan sponsor services.
